

Save the date.

Upcoming Minimally Invasive Spine Surgery Courses:

COURSE I:

Introduction to MIS: Bioskills Focusing on Minimally Invasive Lumbar Degenerative Surgery

October 1-2, 2009 in Las Vegas, Nevada

COURSE II:

Advanced Techniques in Minimally Invasive Surgery

October 2-3, 2009 in Las Vegas, Nevada

Medical Education

never stop moving™

Agenda

Course Chairmen:

Steven Ludwig, MD
University of Maryland
Shock Trauma Institute
Baltimore, Maryland

Tony Tannoury, MD
Boston Medical Center
Boston, Massachusetts

Thursday, October 1, 2009

Course I: Introduction to MIS Attendees Arrive

6:00-8:30 pm..... Welcome Reception and Registration for Course I

Friday, October 2, 2009

8:00-4:00 pm..... Course I: Introduction to MIS
Hands-on Cadaveric Lab with
Supplemental Lecture

4:00 pm..... Course I Adjourns

Course II: Advanced Techniques in MIS Attendees Arrive

6:30-7:00 pm..... Registration for Course II:
Advanced Techniques in MIS

7:00-8:30 pm..... Cases and Cocktails*
Course I Attendees are welcome to attend*

Saturday, October 3, 2009

8:00-4:00 pm..... Course II: Advanced Techniques in MIS
Hands-on Cadaveric Lab with
Supplemental Lecture

4:00 pm..... Course II Adjourns

Course Objectives

- Learn and discuss applications of Minimally Invasive Spinal Surgery
- Interact and exchange ideas with colleagues who share an interest in advancing MIS Techniques
- Learn from faculty who have extensive experience with minimally invasive techniques
- Participate in group discussion and hands-on cadaveric training

Watch for registration information.

Questions?

For further information, contact the DePuy Spine Medical Education Department at 1-800-741-8075 or visit www.onlinespinecenter.com

Additional information about the Code of Ethics can be found at www.advamed.org/memberportal/about/code

Extraordinary Education Matters